

SUMMER TRIPS

Letter of Intent

As Calvary Student Ministries, we are grateful for the opportunity to take Calvary students on summer trips. In an effort for students to count it a privilege in going and to be a good steward of the money that is given towards the trips, we have developed some guidelines to help students in their commitment to their missions team.

Summer Trip: DC Trip 2019

Fundraising Guidelines for CSM Summer Trips

1. Your trip deposit is non-refundable.
Trip: DC Trip 2019 Deposit Amount: $50
2. Each team member will be asked to raise the full support for this trip. At the end of the Calvary Student Ministry trips, if individuals did not raise the full support for their trip, they may be responsible to pay for the full amount.
3. Each team member will be asked to have 60% of their support raised by June 2nd.
4. If a student ends up not going on a trip, they will be asked to send a letter to their supporters to explain the situation.
5. Money that was already raised towards a trip can NOT be reimbursed to supporters.

With signing this document, we as a family support and are committed to having our student on a CSM Summer Trip. We understand that in signing this letter of intent, our student is committing to being a part of this trip and to all of the guidelines for raising support.
